"As Thou Goest, Step by Step I Will Open Up The Way Before Thee."

*Child of My love, fear not the unknown morrow,
Dread not the new demand life makes of thee;
Thy ignorance doth hold no cause for sorrow
Since what thou knowest not is known to Me.*

*Thou canst not see today the hidden meaning
Of My command, but thou the light shalt gain;
Walk on in faith, upon My promise leaning
And as thou goest all shall be made plain.*

*One step thou seest — then go forward boldly,
One step is far enough for faith to see;
Take that, and thy next duty shall be told thee,
For step by step thy Lord is leading thee.*

*Stand not in fear thy adversaries counting,
Dare every peril, save to disobey:
Thou shalt march on, all obstacles surmounting,
For I, the strong, will open up the way.*

*Therefore go gladly to the task assigned thee,
Having My promise, needing nothing more
Than just to know, where'er the future find thee,
In all thy journeying I go before.*

—Author Unknown

Foreword

The utmost of our desire is that the Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in our daily lives at Northwestern. We seek to please Him because we love Him and want our lives to speak of His excellency.

This world affords us a challenge which we readily accept — and that is to make known far and wide the glorious news of redemption through His blood. This book carries a theme that is the pulse beat of every Christian abandoned to the will of God — to tell men and women of the love of CHRIST JESUS.

Dedication

To those "choice vessels" contending for the faith in regions beyond, who have passed through the halls of Northwestern, we prayerfully dedicate this Scroll.

To This End

It is a long way back to 1902 when seven students came to Dr. Riley, their young pastor then, hungry for further knowledge of the Book of books. Granted one hour a day, they thirsted for more, saying that others would join if additional time could be given. I have often heard Dr. Riley say, "I never planned to found a school, but before I knew it, I had not seven, but fifty students, and a school was born!"

Why in his busy life did he give his time to this endeavor? Because with the rising tide of modernism and evolutionary teaching, he determined under God to train young men and women in the knowledge of God's word to combat the atheistic teaching of their day, that they might become pastors, teachers, and citizens true to the Word. And so the call went out to Christian young people everywhere who were called of God to consecrate their lives to home and foreign service. It is significant that the first graduate went as a missionary to India.

Compulsory education wasn't as general in those days as now. From every walk of life they came to study to "show themselves approved," then to go out as colporteurs, evangelists, pastors, and teachers of the Word. As the educational standards advanced, God led in the establishment of a seminary to further train recruits for larger fields of service.

As the years went by the founder's heart was saddened by the multitude of young men and women who, in the urge for higher education in keeping with the demands of the day, found that their simple faith in God was being wrecked by atheistic teachers in modern colleges and universities. Again and again young people sobbed out their souls, that in this modern trend they had lost their Anchor; they had drifted from the Rock that had been their hope. Universities and colleges once true to God's word had left the faith of their fathers, and spiritually their students were left to grope in the dark. What solution? After nights of prayer, God led in adding a College of Liberal Arts so that Christian young people could have high scholastic training, and yet retain, even more, increase their Christian testimony.

The purpose of all three schools throughout the years has been to train—under consecrated Christian leadership—young men and women that their faith in God might be strengthened and that they might have a "story to tell to the nations." That has been our purpose, and the purpose has not changed. As the founder passed the torch to a man of God's choice, our motto has become "Knowledge on Fire"—a knowledge of God's word implanted in the hearts of zealous young men and women who would lead those who sit in darkness "that they might see a great light." That is our purpose, and God helping us, we'll remain true to that purpose.

Mrs. W. B. Riley

In Memoriam

Only a few years ago Miss Hazel Hanson played, studied, and lived with us at Northwestern. She chose to serve Jesus Christ on the mission fields of earth. Now we thank Him for His love expressed through the giving of her life for the cause of Christ.

Miss Hanson, a member of the graduating class of the Medical Department in 1949, chose as her favorite verse Isaiah 26:3—"Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee; because he trusteth in thee."

Death came to her and her missionary colleagues in the crash of the airplane Tribesman, DC-3, on November 21, 1950, on Mount Moran. The airplane carried a human cargo of twenty-one missionaries and three crewmen. Even as she gave her life in death, may many students give their lives in service of devotion to our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

"Go ye therefore, and teach all nations . . ."

Matthew 28:19

Dr. W. B. Riley, Founder

Even though many Northwestern students did not have the privilege of personally knowing Dr. Riley, they are constantly thankful for the result of the vision that was his—the Northwestern Schools.

Through his faithful efforts not only was a Bible and Missionary Training School born in 1902, but a Seminary was organized in 1935, and, today, the College of Liberal Arts, founded in 1944, is meeting the need of Christian education.

The students' pleasure is that God may reward the efforts of Dr. Riley through their daily building of Northwestern, both materially, and physically.

To the Man whom God chose to tend the glowing embers which year after year serve to ignite the torches that students from these halls carry with them to every corner of this globe . . . torches which burn brightly with . . . knowledge on fire . . .

PRESIDENT BILLY GRAHAM

Dr. Billy Graham depends much on the counsel of the leaders who stay at Northwestern and collaborate with him in handling the affairs of the schools while he is in evangelistic ministries.

Most of the administrative responsibilities of the schools rest upon the shoulders of Mr. Hartill, Dean of the Bible School since 1944 and Dean of Men from 1944 to 1949. In 1949 he became Executive Vice-President to be the "voice" of Dr. Graham at the schools.

Mr. T. W. Wilson is a nationally-known evangelist and was named Vice-President-at-Large in 1948, and Vice-President in 1949. He shares in the administrative work and is director of the extensive foreign student program.

Fine Arts Building

This year marks a decided step in progress for Northwestern Schools in the purchase of a four-floor brick building to house the music and speech departments. We are grateful to Him Who giveth to His children all good things. It has made possible much expansion in both departments.

The students enjoy the use of a colorful student lounge on the main floor—particularly the fireplace which is the center of good times and fellowship and fun. Also on the main floor are offices, an auditorium and stage, and music studios.

As we climb the huge staircase to the second floor our ears may hear strains of vocal or instrumental music from one or several music offices and studios. This may be mingled with phrases of dramatical lines or oratory from the speech studios on the third floor.

To have a building as fitting as the Fine Arts Building makes our hearts glad and our desire is that it may result in honor to His name.

A Cappella Choir

"Sing unto the Lord all ye lands." This is the privilege of Northwestern's A Cappella Choir—to tell the story of Christ to the nation in song, a song prompted by the joy of knowing Him. Singing praises written by both early and modern composers, the choir's utmost desire is to glorify the Lord Jesus Christ.

William Berntsen, Director, with his sparkling personality, musical genius, and strong Christian character, constantly inspires and challenges each member. The personnel, chosen on a competitive basis, is composed of eighty voices. Throughout the year this "big happy family" enjoys itself in radio broadcasts, television programs, parties, and socials. To climax the year the entire group went "all out" to enjoy themselves at their annual week-end retreat.

Officers—Robert Lillard, President; Stanley Franklin, Vice President; Christine Barville, Secretary; Shirley Marshall, Treasurer; Lenore Ellis, Warren Benson, Social Committee; Douglas Gowler, Dan Boyer, Stands Committee; Rosemary Ferguson, Robe Chairman; Midgene Bjorklund, Librarian.

Oratorio Choir

As is traditional with this chorus, Handel's "Messiah" was the first presentation of the year under the direction of Professor Reuben Johnson. Besides performing the Christmas and spring oratorios, the choir engages in reading and locally performing other works.

The choir numbers one hundred and thirty-five voices selected entirely from the student body. Soloists were Mr. Philip Gustafson, Mrs. Janice Gustafson, H. Daniel Boyer, and Anna Newell.

Officers—Lawrence Lambert, President; Ralph Beckstrom, Vice President; Ruth Santner, Secretary-Treasurer; Loren Johnson, Librarian.

Ensembles

Out of sheer joy in serving and a desire to spread the gospel, many new musical ensembles are voluntarily formed each year. Once a group is formed, they are kept quite busy singing or playing both in school and out of school for the glory of Christ. Despite the long hours of diligent practice that this service requires, the reward of satisfaction in service and fellowship is worthy of the sacrifice.

Carolers for Christ Trio — Lenore Sanden, Jean Paterik, Twyla Holsteen, and Gwen Monniger, pianist.

Jubilaires Quartet—Jack Markey, first tenor; Bob Wilkin, bass; Gerry Boyer, second tenor; Dan Boyer, baritone; Mr. Berntsen, pianist.

No Name Quartet—Bill McKee, second tenor; Roland Halberg, first tenor; Paul Nelson, bass; Dale Bull, baritone; Earl Evenson, pianist.

Ambassadors Quartet—Jack Marshall, first tenor; Ted Lepper, second tenor; Dick Mohr, bass; Stan Franklin, baritone.

Recitals

Upon nearing the completion of their course and attaining success in their field of study, many upperclassmen appear in private recital in the Fine Arts Auditorium. The performance constitutes a full concert worked up by one or two musicians.

Quarter Notes

Activity reigns supreme in the Fine Arts Building since its opening last September. Not only is it busy with students coming and going throughout the day, but plays and recitals keep it lighted and alive in the evenings. This is, indeed, symbolic of the earnestness and eagerness that thrives in the heart of the average student at Northwestern.

Depicted are some of the scenes one would see on an average day at "FAB":

Chatting around the fireplace in the spacious lounge are Helen Patrick, Shirley Langerak, and Barbara Trosvick. Eunice Johnson, secretary to Mr. Bernstein, waters the ivys in his music studio and private office. Reuben Johnson gives private piano instructions. At the piano practicing diligently is Pete Guilian.

Speech Department

As the speech department moved to new quarters, an expanded program quickly filled the enlarged space. New speech laboratory facilities were added. All freshmen students were given preliminary speech tests and assigned to sections which met their individual needs. Remedial and corrective speech instruction was continued under the direction of Miss Anderson.

Each year the forensics program expands to include more students and many new activities. This year the school gained new recognition in this area and many students found greater opportunity for training.

Shirley Langerak and Milton Erway won trophies in Folk-tale telling and After-dinner speaking. Ralph Neighbor and David Backstrom participated in oratory and extempore speaking. Below are the trophies which Shirley and Milton captured and, at right, they are pictured with their coaches, Miss Anderson and Mr. Lee.

Trophies

Dramatics

With the acquisition of the Fine Arts Building, a newly decorated auditorium and spacious storage in the attic, dramatic activity entered its second year. Two plays "Crown of Thorns" and "The Passing of the Third Floor Back" were presented in the fall semester and "Barter" in the spring. These plays—each with a definite Christian message and theme—offered training and entertainment to students as well as unique testimony to non-Christians.

Northwestern does not aim to produce great dramatic artists but uses this means to train students for more effective presentation of the Gospel in word and action.

Northwestern plays are directed by the speech faculty and staged by student crews of carpenters, painters and costume designers. Members of those groups will long remember the hectic days when the new curtains were installed and the last ladder was removed from the stage ten minutes before curtain time.

In two years many traditions have grown up around the plays and all-school Christmas party. Santa Claus and Ebenezer Scrooge must appear on the night before vacation. Play names supplant given names as students gain new characters. Thus times of fellowship and prayer unite both students and faculty as they work.

Forensics

Debate and other public speaking activities received new impetus as students returned victorious from several major tournaments. Over thirty students participated in inter-collegiate debate at St. Olaf, Iowa State Teacher's College, Wheaton College, Normal University, Concordia, St. Thomas, University of Minnesota, and other colleges. This included about 150 inter-collegiate debates during the season.

Climax of the year was the annual debate in chapel. David Backstrom and Richard Lindstrom debated a team from St. Catherine's College on the topic, Resolved: that the Non-Communist nations should form a new international organization.

An innovation in interpretation recitals was the folk-tale recital in March. Costumed students told stories from the folklore of many nations. Senior recitals were presented by Ralph Neighbor reading Ben Hur and Lynne Feely reading Wuthering Heights. Marilyn Clark presented Ethan Frome for her junior recital. Other recitals occurred throughout the year.

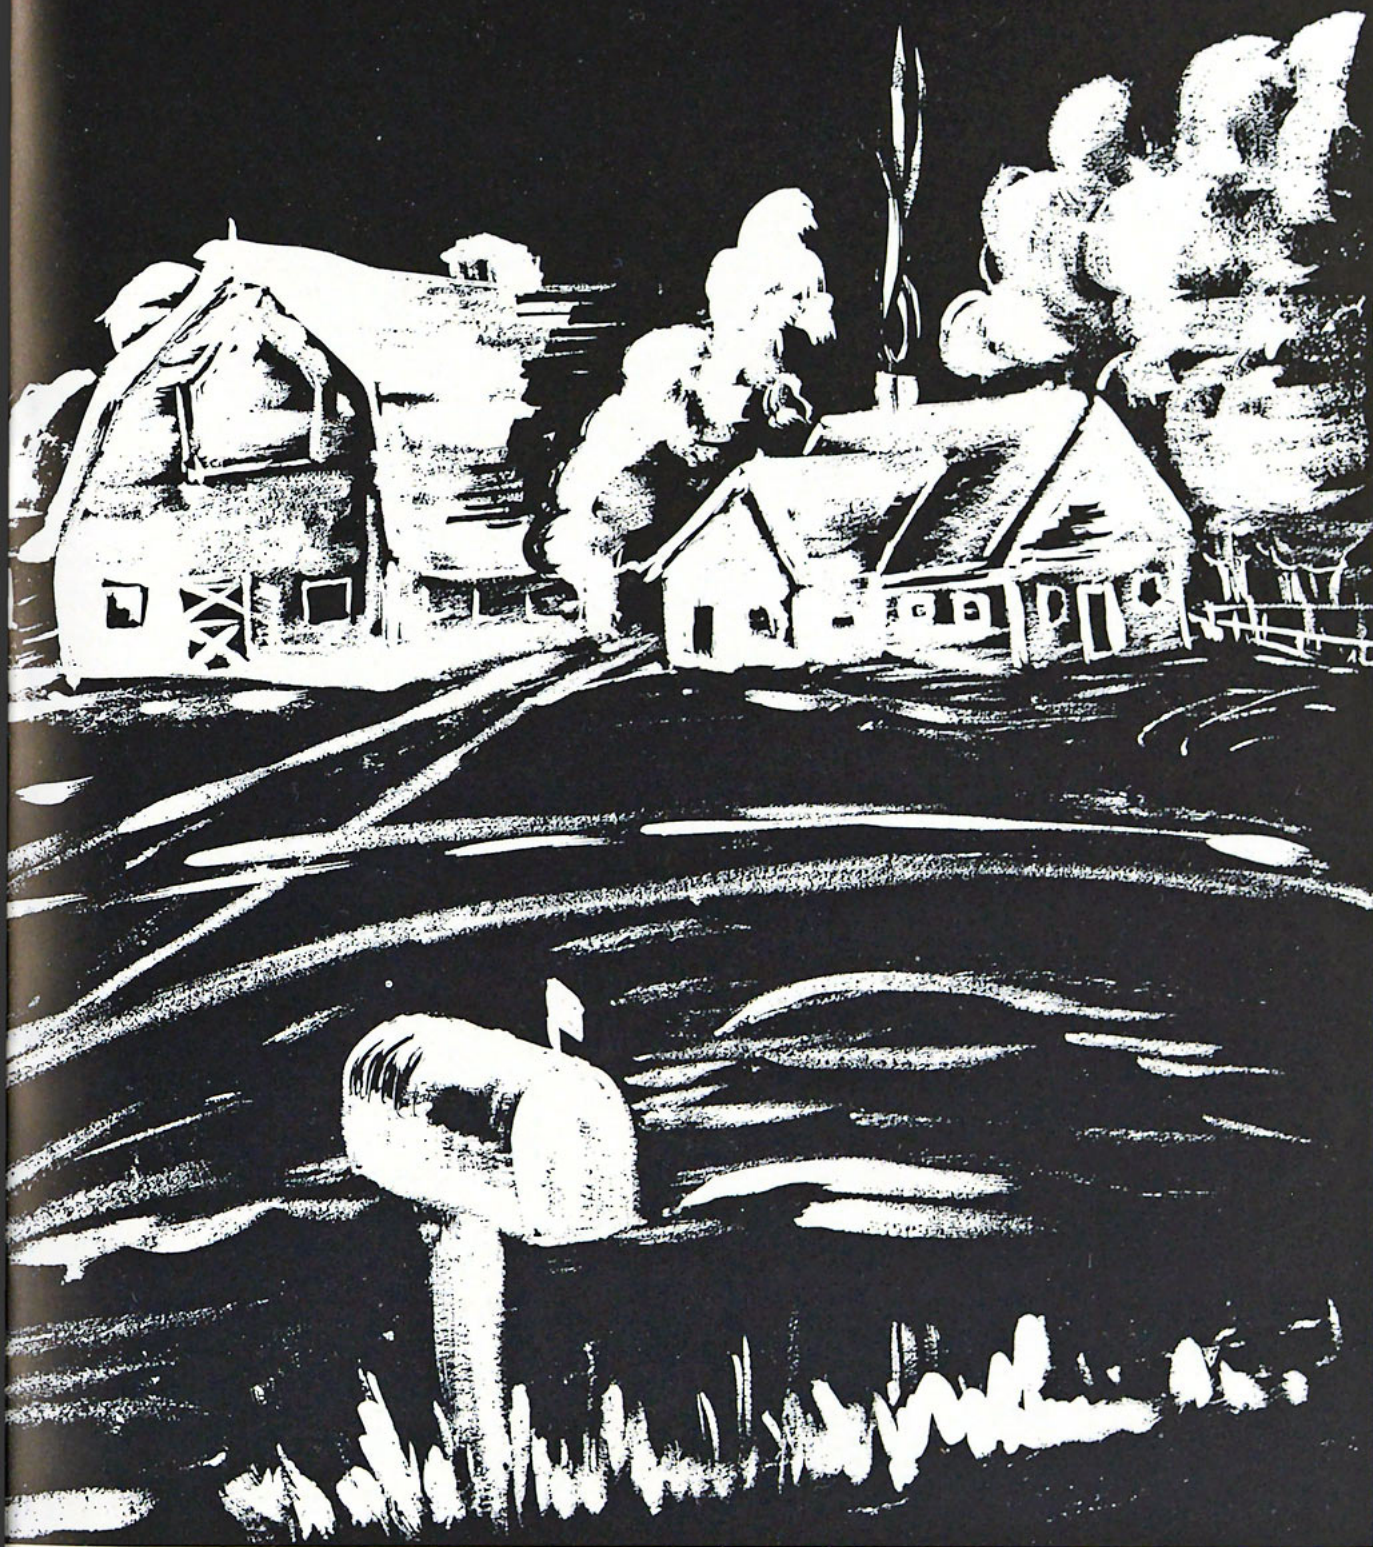

The year was highlighted by the publication of Mr. Lee's book So You Want to Speak and several experimental sections of Freshman speech. All of this totaled to a year of blessing and progress in the Speech Department.

Alumni Association

It is a distinct privilege for me as president to extend a cordial Christian welcome to the members of the 1951 graduating classes. The spirit and influence of Northwestern Schools have touched every part of this globe for Christ, and we feel sure that you likewise will take your place in the service of Christ and be a blessing wherever you go.

A wonderful bond of truth binds together the family of God, and we trust as alumni that we will be bound closely together in the service of Christ and in the fellowship of His Gospel, and that our support of the Schools will be wholehearted and genuine. We have a wonderful opportunity to do a magnificent service for Christ so we extend to you a great welcome into the Alumni Association.

Foreign Missions Fellowship

The pulse-beat of missions is felt through the entire school through the activity of the Foreign Mission Fellowship, better known as "F.M.F." Its purpose is to help those who are planning to serve on a mission field or to provide information about Northwestern graduates who have been or are now serving in this ministry.

The group's president is Robert Goffrier who also is a part-time announcer for Station KTIS. Mae Koksma keeps the records and office in first class condition as Fellowship secretary. The Vision, F.M.F. monthly paper, is edited by Roy Irving. On Friday evenings the "Hour of Power" is a source of blessing to the students as the F.M.F. staff presents various fields and missionary boards through missionary speakers and films.

Radio Station KTIS

From the cheerful greeting in the morning on KTIS—AM to the prayer of devotion in the evening on KTIS—FM, Northwestern's "Radio Voice" is an inspiration daily to over one million listeners. Mr. Loren Bridges, center, is Station Director and on his left is his efficient secretary, Miss Ann Kiemele. Chief Announcer for the station is Mr. Forrest Boyd.

Student Forum

Upon the shoulders of the Forum members rests the responsibility of handling the problems that are common to students throughout the land. In handling the problems with which they are confronted, the representatives endeavor to improve student life scholastically, socially, and spiritually. "A happy family makes a happy home" and, with the Forum acting on behalf of the student body, Northwestern is just that.

The group is constituted of thirteen representatives chosen from the various classes of the schools. They are George Gulian, Mary Barnett, Donald Watson—Forum President, Dave Harrison, Emmett Dosier, Jimmy Johnson, Ezra Ostergard, LeRoy Eims, Donald Lang, Leo Shelton, Robert Lehn, Keith Moore, and Glen Cook. Mr. Ervin Butler is Faculty Representative.

Missionary Conference Week

The school's aim is, as President Billy Graham would say, to be "missions first." The Annual Missionary Conference is surely the top week of the year in nearly every respect. Coming between semesters, the conference has lent itself well to the consideration of the world-wide fields and God's claim on us as we have seen the need of servants, the price that must be paid, and the thrill of God's working through His choice servants. Among many outstanding speakers, Mrs. Ruth Stull spoke about the power of God in the jungles of Ecuador and Peru, Bob Pierce told of the heroic, bleeding church in Korea, Mrs. Isabelle Kuhn related her stories about God's leading in the wild Lisu-land, and Bob Cook spoke about the challenge of disobedience. Many missionaries gave first-hand information about the field and preparation for service, the service of our King. The evening services, held in the auditorium of the First Baptist Church were climaxed by a host of young people answering the call to faithful service.

The lobby of the school proper was a busy place as receptionists and the FMF staff bustled about finding lodging for the visiting speakers and missionaries, and endeavoring to make them feel at home. Twenty-six societies were represented by a total of forty-two missionaries. Besides the meetings in Memorial Hall, the gymnasium housed the displays of all the societies represented and missionaries were kept busy as they counselled with students interested in their particular field. Moving pictures and slides were used along with the message of missionary speakers to make the need very living and vital. From letters received from the field some of the results from this conference were blessings in the hearts of the missionaries who came. May the deep and far-reaching results of this endeavor win many lost people to Christ.

Secretarial Department

Students of Northwestern are given an opportunity to study Shorthand, Typewriting, Bookkeeping, and Office Procedure. This modern, well-equipped department is under the supervision of Mrs. Helen Baxter. An average of forty students enroll each year for instruction.

Graduates are now occupying fine secretarial positions throughout the country. The department seeks to send out graduates who are not only well-trained in their field, but secretaries who have consecrated their lives for Christian service. "For His name's sake they went forth."

The Pilot

Now in its thirty-first year, the publication has steadily gained a place as one of the leading magazines in the Christian field. Designed as a Bible Study magazine, each issue of THE PILOT carries articles by outstanding Bible scholars, articles with a depth and timeliness so valuable to Christians everywhere. Regular subscribers find in the monthly features an up-to-the-minute report on evangelism today, the Uniform Sunday School Lessons for each month, reviews and previews of the latest books in the Christian field and the Alumni News section with sketches of our alumni both here and on the mission field. All this combines to make the magazine your "best buy in Christian reading."

Cheerleaders

Exuberant, bright and sparkling might well describe the 1950-51 edition of Northwestern cheerleaders. Nancy Lammeman, Jewel Walker and Margaret Pyne were the feminine section. The boys were Jerry Hawbaker, Duane Orn and the long-legged captain himself, Burt Garland.

They were supreme in the production of pep, were plenteously supplied with personality and constantly capable of carrying out clever ideas on the floor. All of this, plus a unique spirit of cooperation which is a real tribute to the fervent love of Christ, and their outstanding sportsmanship made them, we think, the top cheer squad of Northwestern's history.

Missionary Medicine

This class continues to be a wedge for the gospel as the students look forward to the "uttermost parts" as their place of service for Christ. Most of them are already under appointment by various mission boards and the remainder look to Him for direction. Pray for them, as they depend on you.

The purpose of this course is to instruct the missionary in the maintenance of his own health, teach him what to do in emergencies, give insight as to the need of a doctor or nurse, and give some understanding of nursing principles. As pictured above, Miss Marilyn Rogers, along with the aid of local doctors, gives the instructions in this class. Students participate in such demonstrations as use of steam inhalation, application of moist hot packs, and care of the new-born.

Besides assisting the nurses in the care of patients in the infirmary and dispensary, the students are employed in Minneapolis hospitals as ward aides and orderlies. This practical work confirms class-room lecture material.

Modern Language Department

The supreme objective of the study of modern languages is to qualify the student for the understanding and appreciation of the languages and literatures of various people of the world. To this end emphasis is laid on accuracy in understanding the details of the syntax, grammar, and morphology; the accumulation of the basic facts in the sociological, historical, and literary background of the peoples; and the systematic correlation of these elements in truths. The study of a modern language is of particular value to one entering the field of missionary work. Especially in advanced courses the student gains a direct appreciation of and acquaintance with the modes of thought and expression of the nations of Europe and Latin America and contributions made by these nations.

Courses offered in the College of Liberal Arts and their instructors are: German and French, Miss Violet Munter; French and Spanish, Miss Shirley Johnson; Russian and Japanese, Mr. Vernon VanSickle.

School Infirmary

"A place of retreat for those feeling under the weather"—that is the infirmary, better known as Mitchell Hall, the red brick building located east of the school. Student health service as well as the Missionary Medicine Department is under the direction of Dr. C. A. Aling, school physician.

If one would walk the corridor of Mitchell he would probably see a line of students waiting to be seen by the nurse. Such common ailments as sore throat, colds, or a swollen ankle may be the reason for this visit. And again, the student may have a small white paper in his hand wondering if his sick excuse is going to get signed—especially if he has failed to notify the nurse of his illness.

Northwestern Athletics

Some years ago, when Northwestern Schools embarked upon its athletic program, competition was limited to independent and church teams of the Twin City area. Without proper facilities or personnel the program was the best that could result from the effort and interest put forth. At first basketball was the only sport participated in, but then, a few years ago—five or six—baseball was inaugurated into the field of inter-collegiate sports. Four years ago, with the completion of Moyer Gym, Northwestern began participating with freshmen teams in the state. Because of new and better facilities, a new interest in sports was evidenced.

Today Northwestern is engaged in a full-fledged program of inter-collegiate athletics. The "Eagles" now are playing college varsity teams throughout the Mid-West. Teams are maintained in the field of basketball, baseball, wrestling, tennis, and golf. Further expansion is planned in the immediate future.

As the interest in intercollegiate sport activities grows, it is necessary that we keep before us this one important thought—athletics are a means to an end, and not the end in itself. Only as athletics give honor to the school and glory to our blessed Lord is there any justification for their existence.

We believe sports can and should be an important function in the activities of the school, and that they play an essential part in the Lord's work. Through this endeavor we are afforded contacts for Christ that otherwise could never have been made. Both adults and young people are interested in recreation of one form or another—it is essential to one's physical well-being, and important to one's mental health. With the stress and strain of our work and of our world, recreation, either as an object of participation or observation, is one of the finest methods of restful relaxation of the mind. It is a splendid form of healthful and needful entertainment.

Continued growth and participation in the field of athletics and recreation here at Northwestern are based upon this principle—that the Lord Jesus Christ be honored and exalted in every way and under all conditions. "Therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's." I Corinthians 6:20.

Looking back over the past season in athletics we find that this year has been our biggest and best. All those who have participated have been a credit to their school and to their Lord. May this always be so.

EAGLES — Best in School's History

This basketball season has undoubtedly been the most outstanding year that the Northwestern Eagles have ever experienced. The 1950-51 team showed speed, balance, exceptional ball-handling, and good sportsmanship. Another factor that contributed to the boys' success is the person of "Os" Morley, their new coach. Coach Morley worked his squad many long, hard hours in preparation for the coming season. The players knew that "Os" demanded a winning combination.

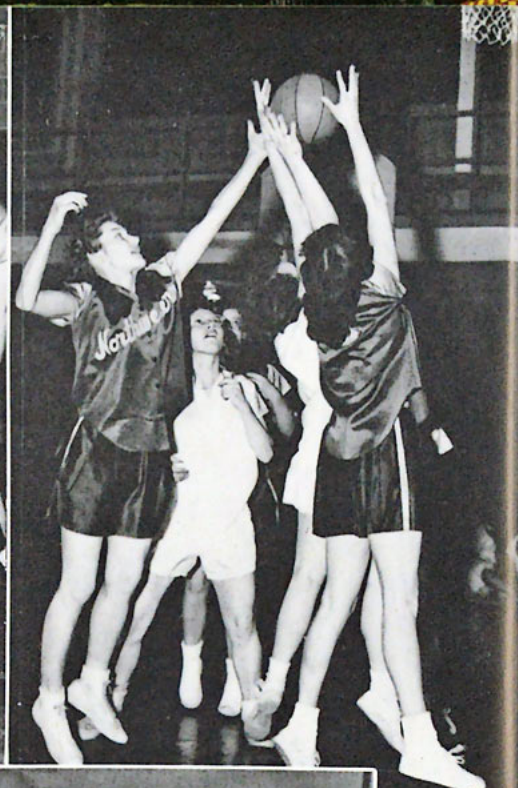

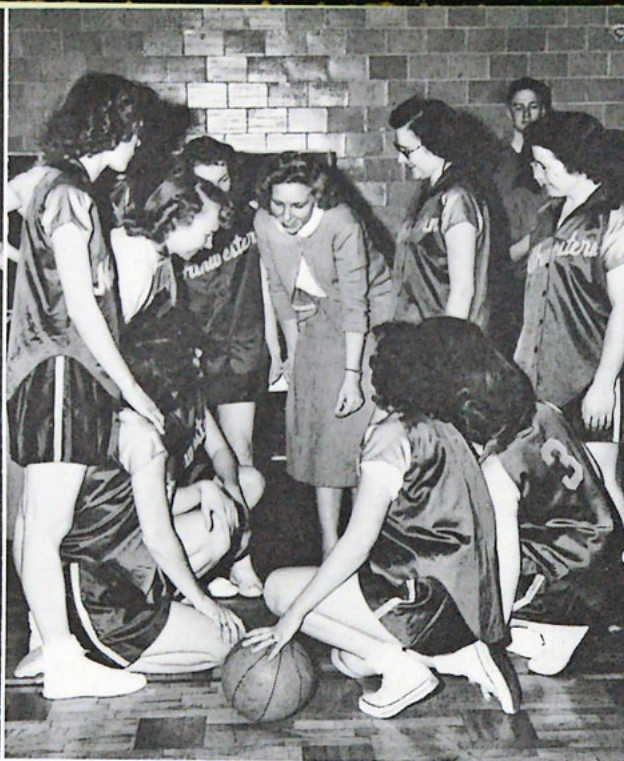

The Eagles started the season off with a victory with Vern Hintermeyer, the captain and a great play-maker, in guard position. His running mate was Les (Buckshot) Habegger, a great defensive man. A forward position was held down by the hard driving, high jumping Jim Cook. Opposite him was Orville "Jumping Jack" Johnson whose left push shot was very effective throughout the season. Playing the key was Gundy Habich with a smooth hook shot. When replacements were needed, Os called upon Bob Lehn, Dick Manning, Gene Mayer, and Lehn Holm, who capably handled their tasks. Gordon Shipp, Gene Ongna, and Floyd Johnson, all first year men, displayed a great deal of determination and capability on the basketball floor. At all times the players desired to play well that in all things Christ might be honored.

Girls' Physical Education

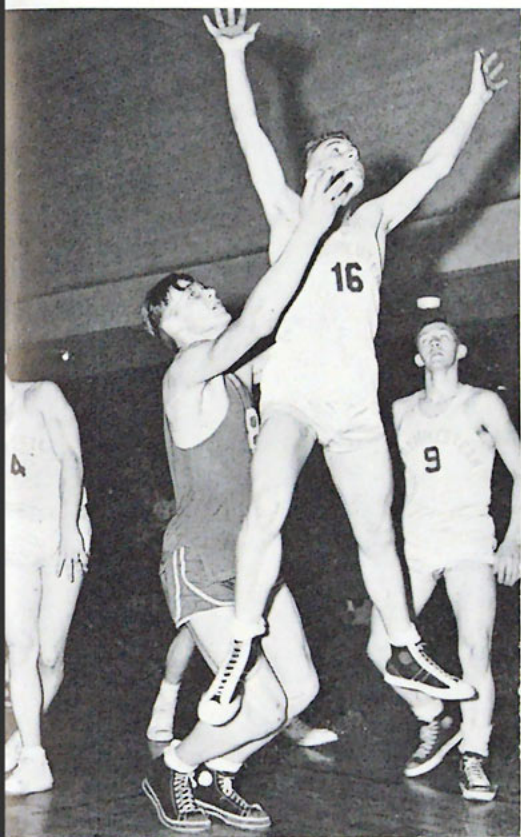

Training in the field of physical education includes instruction and participation in the various sports such as volleyball, basketball, badminton, tumbling, games of low organization, and softball. In these sports intra-mural tournaments are carried on each year.

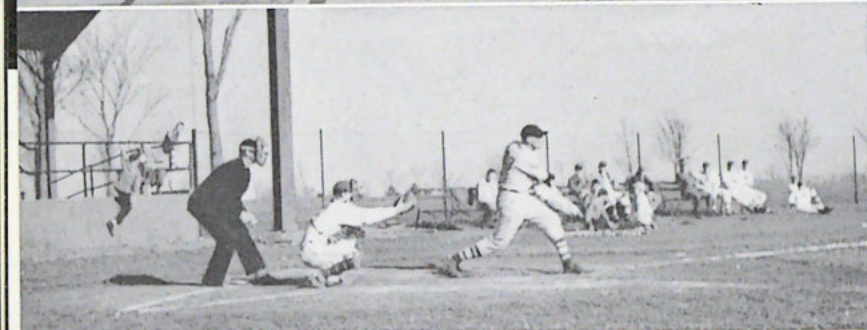

The Varsity Basketball team for this year consisted of Jean Manning, Wilda Busby, Lelia Foote, Ruth Larsen, Ethel Hauge, guards, Mardell Busby, Irene Renfer, Faith Kreider, Grace Sweetland, Myrna Brant, forwards. Manager for the team was Lois Magnuson. This versatile team placed fourth in the Park League this season.

Physical education classes meet twice a week and the girls perform squad formation drills, games, and other exercises. The program is under the direction of Miss Hazel Johnson.

Intramural Activities

To facilitate the sports program for those that are unable to participate in varsity activities, the intramural program is established on a semi-competitive basis and carried out in tournament fashion. This enables students to enjoy the sport of their choice and to perform in competition at their leisure.

Baseball

As they put away their bats and baseballs, the Eagles were proud of the season they had just passed. The squad was completely unstoppable on the home field winning five straight games. However, in this, their third year of play, a jinx travelled with them and they were less successful on the out-of-town diamonds.

Enthusiasm ran high as Coach "Os" Morley chose a winning combination from the aspirants that faithfully attended the rugged practice sessions. In the front row are Leonard Robinson, David Schoonover, Cecil Goins, and Vernon Hintermeyer. Standing are Coach Morley, Ted Stone, Harber Sublett, Dick Smith, Robert Lehn, Phil Smith, and Earl Larson, Manager.

At the end of the season the score pad tallied like this:

Wrestling Team

After many long hours of rugged practice, the team engaged in two matches, both with the University Farm School. The first match resulted in a split decision and, in the return match, the "Aggies" were hard pressed to win 20-14.

School Event

There is always excitement and anticipation with the thought of returning to school—particularly at Northwestern. With the mixed emotions of diligent studies ahead, new friendships being established, old friendships being renewed, and fellowship centered in Christ, young people from every state anxiously hurry back from a summer at home. Happiness can be seen on the faces of students and staff members as they greet President Billy Graham on a bright sunny morning.

Dormitory Life

New friends, new room-mates, new beds, new activities—all this makes up dorm life. The hub and pulse beat of all school life is the dormitory of which Northwestern has seven. These become dear to their occupants because they have "all the comforts of home."

Quiet study hours contrasted with the chatter and laughter of ice cream and cake parties, serious talk concerning spiritual matters, work and play mingled with tears and happiness, quiet respect for the house-mother disturbed by a gentle rebuke from the same—all this goes to make dorm life at Northwestern an experience that is maturing in many respects and would not be traded for a fortune.

Parties And Socials

One of the first big events of the year is the masquerade Halloween party for the entire student body. Ghosts, goblins, and witches greet each other in ghastly ways and no one knows his dearest friend.

This year the circus made its appearance at Northwestern complete with the tight-rope walker, the fat lady, the man on the flying trapeze, the bearded lady, and even a circus band.

Parties are prevalent as each class holds its own party, in its own fashion. Other socials are the back-wards party, Valentine party, and the Friday Family Night in the cafeteria.

And, of course, college life would be impossible without a social time being held in the home of "one of the gang"—it just wouldn't be right if forty or fifty "friends" didn't drop in on the folks for a bang-up time.

Faculty-Forum Game

It happened—the Forum “put to death” the Faculty in a fast over-time game in Moyer Gym. After the pros paraded their band and gave out some Western music, the students held a mourning walk for the soon-to-be-defeated faculty. Red and white polka dot sun dresses worn by the Forum team added color and confusion to this traditional Northwestern fete.

School Picnic

Taking the Northwestern "family" on an all-day outing is quite an undertaking but it always proves to be one of the outstanding "school days" of the entire year. On the Medicine Lake ground is Pete Gulian being hog-tied by some of his feminine admirers; Mrs. Houlihan and Ma Kettle enjoying their second childhood; Dr. Sanden puts one over the net; Joan Hatch wielding the club; and Pete is up a tree again.

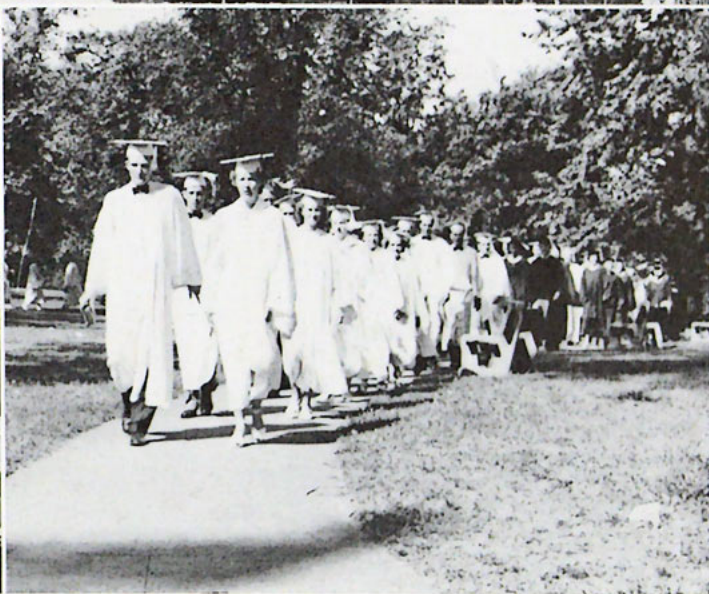

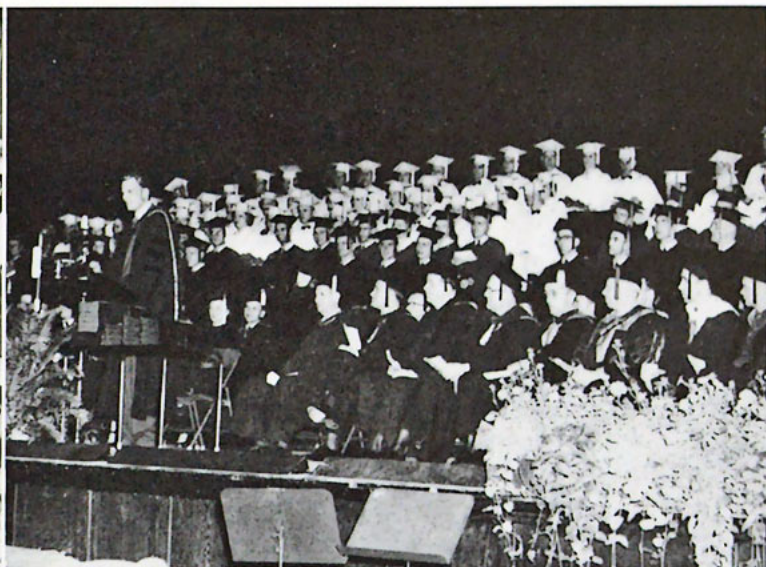

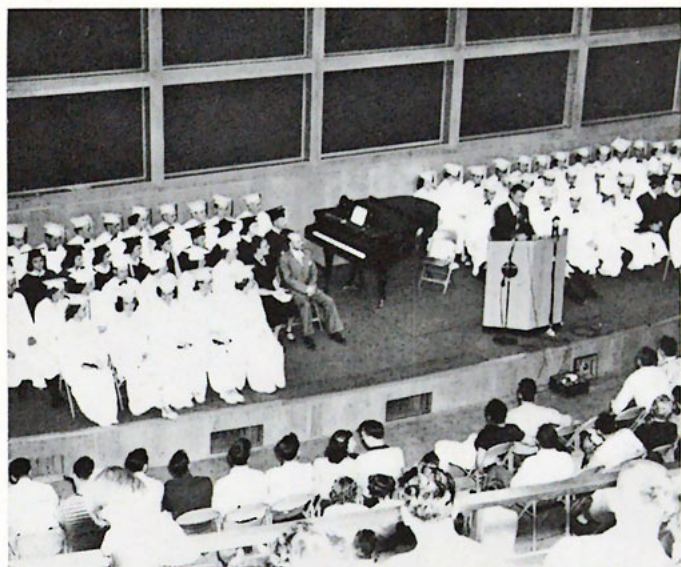

Spring Banquet

Just before preparing for the last great week at school, the "family" once again enjoyed one great get-together in a formal manner. The Old Ship Northwestern was at anchor as young couples went ashore on liberty to the Nicollet Hotel. Everyone in ship's company, from Skipper to deck hands, joined hands to make this occasion the greatest of the year's cruise.

We, the student body, live in the joy and anticipation of this annual affair as Old Ship Northwestern continues to sail under the charting of the One Who is Commander of our lives. So "anchors aweigh, my boys, we sail at break of day."

It's Senior Day in chapel as we approach the end of the journey . . . Dr. Graham speaking at Commencement exercises . . . Awarding a degree to Dr. Bob Jones, Jr. . . . The Seniors parade over the campus.

Northwestern Bible Conference

Throughout the years of its existence, the Conference, held at Medicine Lake grounds, has grown tremendously in popularity. Under the direction of Dr. Simpson the conference consists of a program that is beneficial to young people and adults alike.

Daily Bible Study hours, pastor's conferences, women's meetings, constructive discussions in church work, children's meetings, lake-side singspirations, devotional periods, and a sports schedule designed to accommodate every person—all these make the conference a week that is supremely beneficial in every respect.

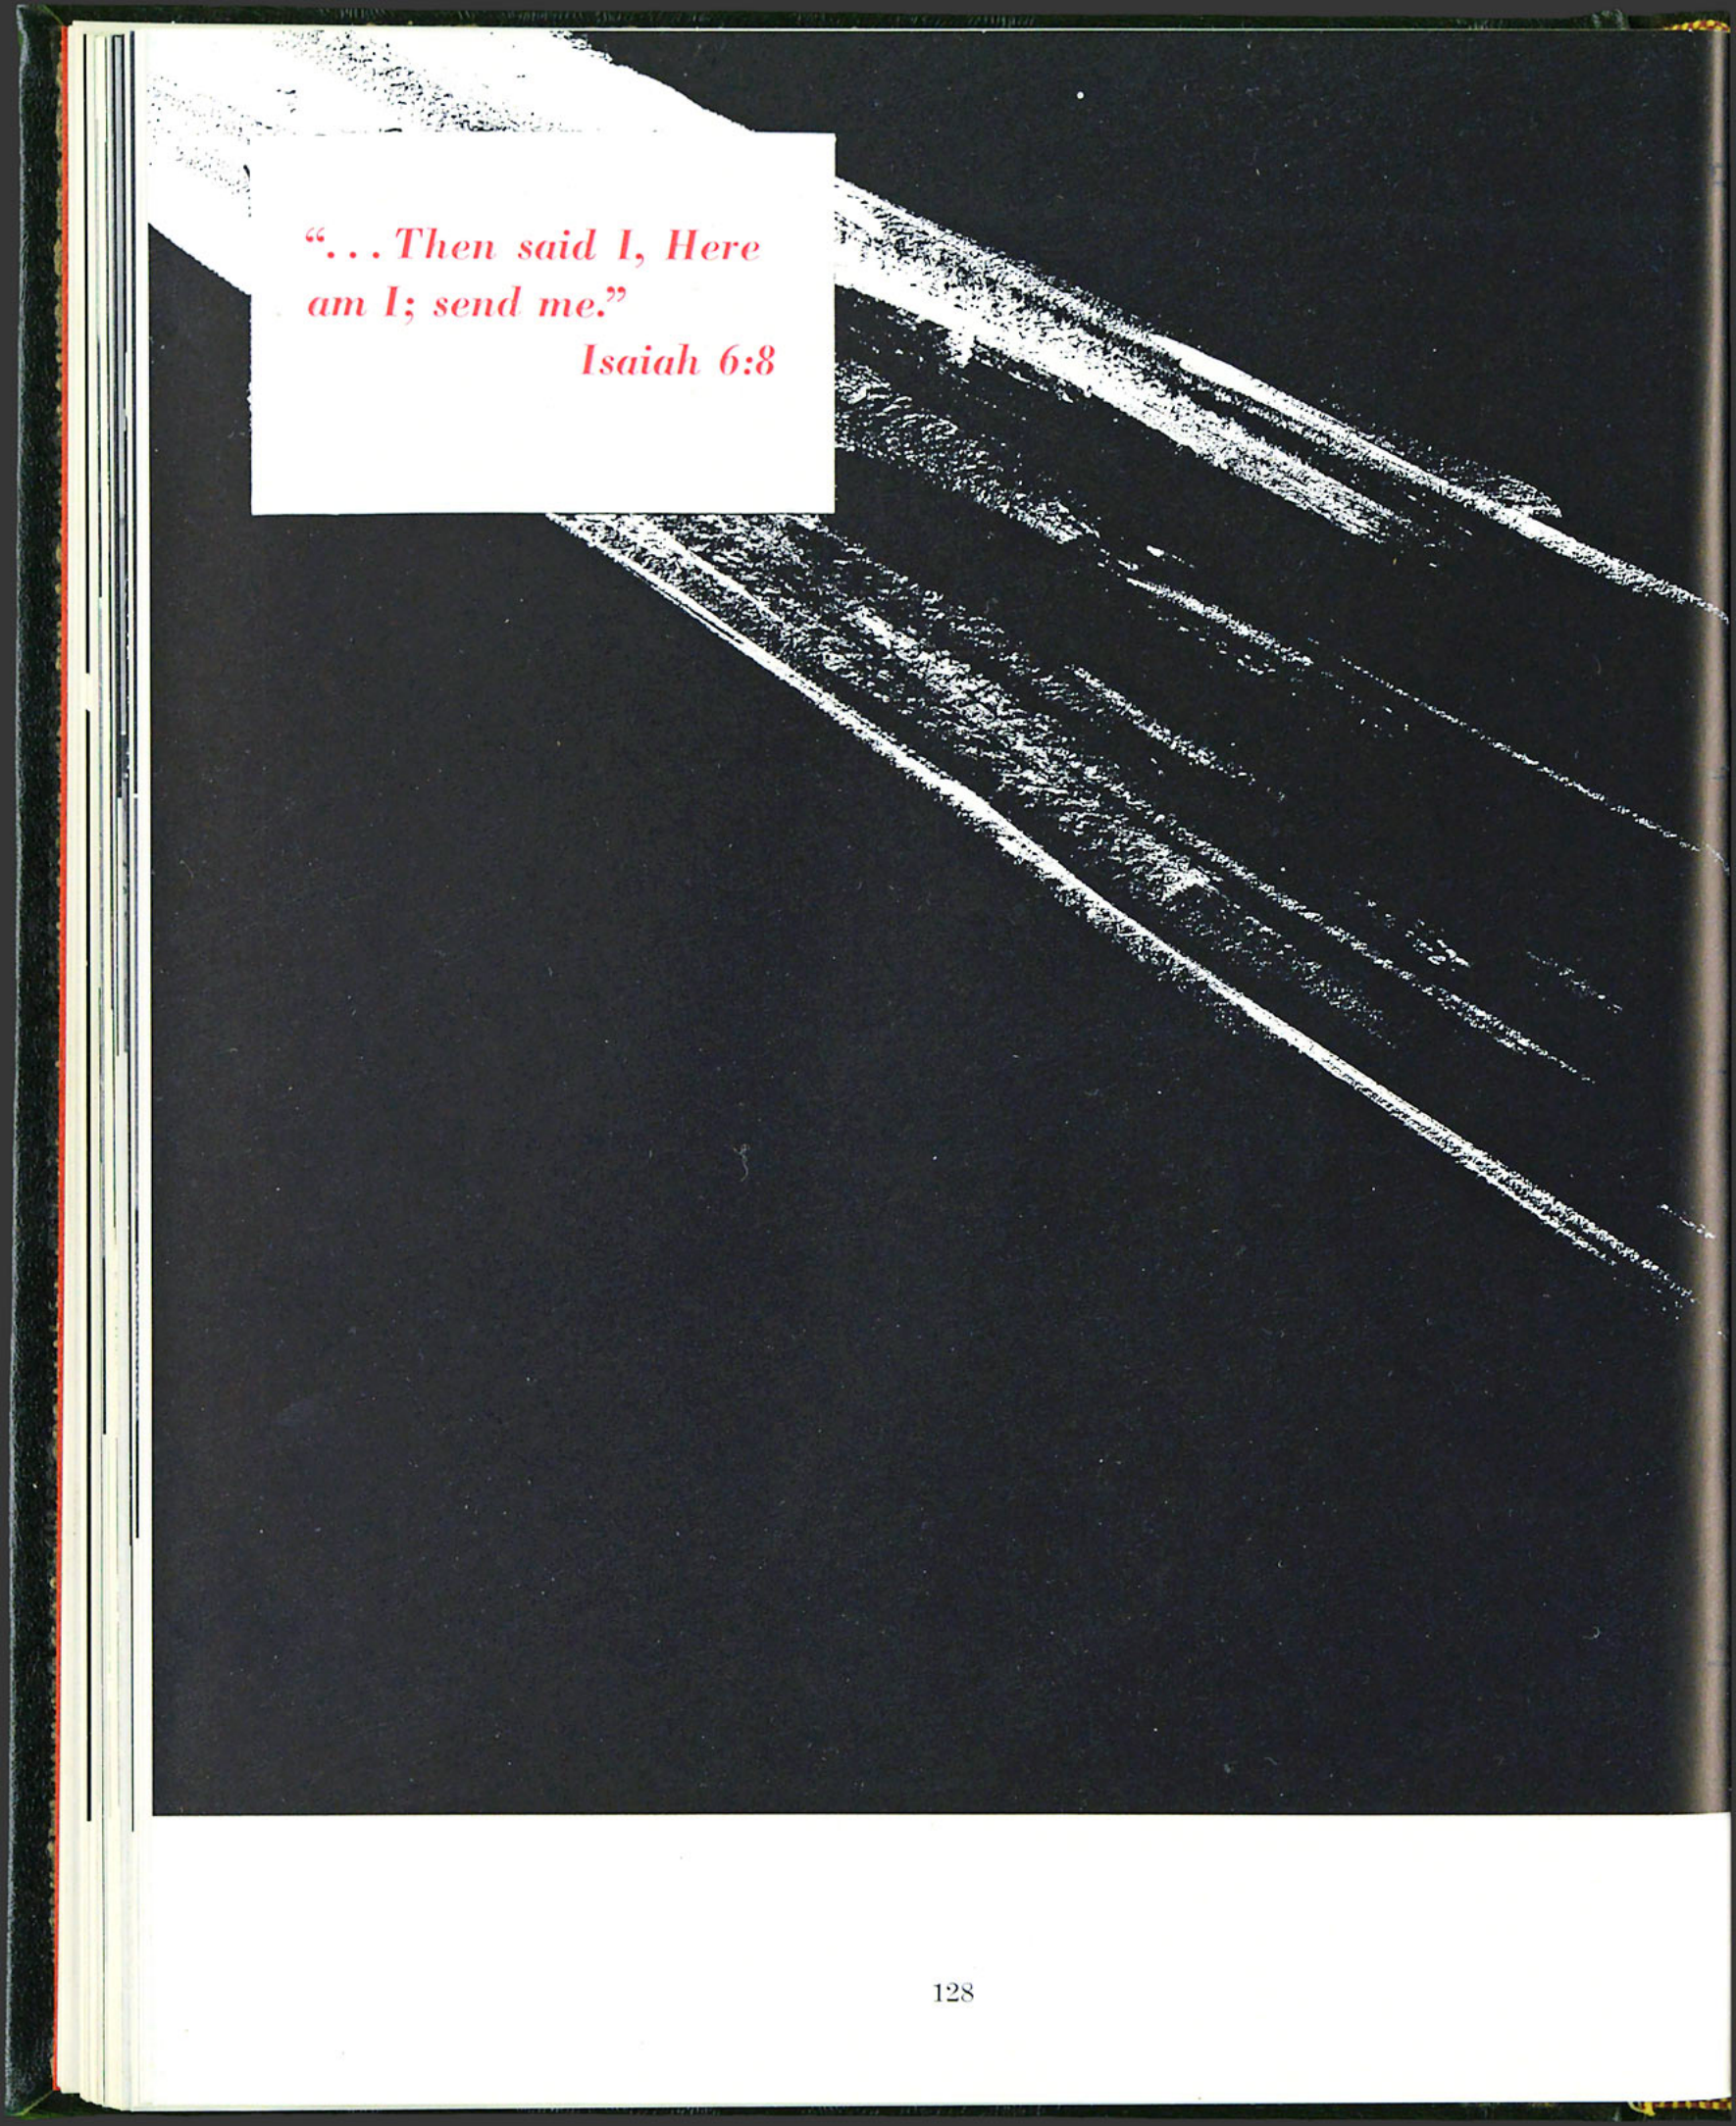

Speakers for the 1951 Conference will be Dr. Allen Fleece, Chattanooga, Tennessee; Howard Butt, Corpus Christi, Texas; Larry Ward, Christian Writer's Course; and Rev. John S. Wimbish, Calvary Baptist Church, New York City.

Special Events

Combined musical and sports event . . . Momentous event.
 Blessed event, Little Wilson . . . Dreamy event.
 Tragic event or common event? . . . Monday event . . .
 Kay in any event.

†-- Information is incomplete.

All others are persons who have either applied to a board but have not yet been accepted at this date (March 1, 1951) or who are in training under a board.

This indicates, to our knowledge, all NW candidates for service on foreign and home fields. We feel, however, that there must be many more recent graduates who are moving toward the field but who have not kept us informed.
Any information concerning those persons will be greatly appreciated and will be beneficial to all concerned.

NORTHWESTERN SCHOOLS

Congratulations, Graduates!

As you leave the doors of our Alma Mater for the last time, we, the underclassmen, bid you "farewell" and wish you His choicest blessing that your footsteps will lead you into fruitful service at home or abroad. We, too, desire that our lives with yours may be used to enrich the farings of our fellowmen and, above all, bring glory to the name of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

A Psalm of Life

*Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time;*

*Footprints that perhaps another
Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, shall take heart again.*

INTRODUCING NORTHWESTERN'S BIBLE COLLEGE

The Bible College is distinguished from a Bible School in two particulars: (1) it offers a course of at least four years, leading to a bachelor's degree; (2) it gives a larger place in its curriculum for liberal arts subjects.

The Bible College is distinguished from a Liberal Arts College in that it is classified as a professional school instead of a liberal arts school. This means that a Bible College offers a specialized curriculum, and a Liberal Arts College makes possible a generalization in curriculum. As a result, a Bible College offers a minimum of liberal arts subjects, and a Liberal Arts College requires a breadth of courses.

UNPRECEDENTED WORLD PROBLEMS are beating up-on the two foundations today. Northwestern's stance is firmer than ever, but the "house upon the sand" is shaking, while educators plead for a voice of authority to point the way to a sure foundation.

TO HELP BRIDGE THAT INTELLECTUAL GAP, Northwestern's Science Department has initiated a course on the correlation of science and the Bible. This is one of many opportunities which these schools offer to help Christian young people come to grips with world problems.

NORTHWESTERN'S FOUNDATION STONES were laid deeply upon the Truth of the Word of God almost fifty years ago. Education as a whole at that time had begun to discount the Bible as an authority for the Age of Science and to rebuild upon the sands of human reason.

Here It Is!

As I lay down my pencil and cover my typewriter and send the last bit of copy to the printers, an entire year of diligent work flashes through my mind. Seeing the book near completion gives me a sense of satisfaction and joy—and yet, mine is a greater thrill in knowing that this book has been edited with one purpose in mind and that is to bring honor to the name of our Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ.

As you look through these pages, may you discover a theme that is the keynote of our activities and studies here at Northwestern—"Knowledge on Fire" for the cause of our Lord and Saviour and utter devotion to Him.

The Editor
